(Copy for School Board, Barranquitas)

Cargos

February 14, 1912.

Sir:

In accordance with Section 42 of the School Laws of Porto Rico, I am hereby suspending you as a teacher in the public schools of Porto Rico under the general charge of immorality, the specific charge being that you were under the influence of liquor and were guilty of acts unbecoming a teacher.

I will give you a period of eight days in which to reply to this charge, either in person or in writing; it being considered that whatever testimony you give to the General Superintendent, Mr. Barlow, will be taken as a reply to the charge.

Respectfully,

E. G. Dexter
FEL
Commissioner of Education.

Mr. Max L. Krinsky,

Barranquitas, P. R.
